

I was unaware of the depth and breadth of the school improvement projects. There are many options and I sincerely hope that people step up and support this financially. someone paid for my generation to go to school and we need to pay it forward.

Rhonda Costa