

Please consider adaptive use of the old school, transform it into office spaces. Build a new school on land that will not endanger the historic architecture. History is worth preserving, and the students deserve more than hobbled-together facilities.

Lori Niemtschk